This letter serves as a formal declaration that the RAVE model submitted herewith, entitled “Alembic”, and the data used to train it, are original, do not infringe on the copyrights of any third party and can be published with the defined license.

I, Jan Ove Hennig, hereby declare that:

1. Copyright Compliance: I acknowledge and respect all applicable copyright laws and regulations.
2. Original Work: The model submitted and the data used to train it are entirely my own creation and do not incorporate any copyrighted material from other sources, including but not limited to text, images, audio, video, or any other form of intellectual property.
3. CC BY-NC Licence: I have full rights and agree to license this work under the Creative Commons V4 Attribution-NonCommercial (CC BY-NC) licence. This means that others may use and share this work for non-commercial purposes, provided they give me appropriate credit.

I understand that any misrepresentation or falsification of the information contained in this letter may have legal consequences.

Sincerely,
